SIMPLE REFURBISHING or COMPLETE REMODEL BUILDOUT

by interior designer Edy Keeler with her architect and general contractor.

Does your home or your listing need a refreshing, with new color and surfaces? Maybe simple or extensive remodeling or re-arrangement to update the look. Or you might be considering an addition to enhance living space, give you a more functional floor plan, and add competitive value if you anticipate selling your home.

Edy and her associates have each been designing and building award-winning projects for over twenty years. Now they've teamed up to provide integrated design and building services, and would love to talk with you.

"We start with a free consultation. Our services include working closely with you to create a workable, handsome design with material and color recommendations for everything, cost estimates and specifications. Project scheduling, construction management, furnishings and accessories if needed, complete the process."

Edy & company will help you avoid five remodeling mistakes: Avoiding permits, Setting an unrealistic budget, Hiring the wrong contractor, Taking on more than you can handle, and Overbuilding for your neighborhood.
